Ghost Solution Suite License Agreement

This software is provided to you under an agreement between The Ohio State University and Symantec, Inc. Under the terms of the license agreement, current faculty and staff may use this software while they are associated with the university. You may not a) rent, lease, or sublicense the software, b) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify, translate or make any attempt to discover the source code of the software, or c) use it for commercial gain or profit. When you are no longer a current faculty or staff member, you must leave this software with your department or The Office of Information Technology (OIT).

The software is for use on The Ohio State University main and regional campuses on OSU-owned or leased equipment only for OSU business purposes. Use on personally-owned computers is prohibited.

You are authorized to install this software on the number of devices for which you have purchased a license. Each instance of a supported operating system running in a virtual machine from which you run Ghost constitutes a device. You may use the software on a network, provided you have licensed a copy of the software for each computer that can access the software over the that network. You agree to accept the terms of the Symantec Ghost Solution Suite license agreement included on the distribution media.

You agree to these use terms, and if authorized to install multiple copies, you must advise anyone who is using or receiving any of those copies that they are prohibited from making copies of the software, and you must supply them with this agreement. This software may not be used outside the USA. You must assure that their signed End User Agreement is returned to OIT in 512 Baker Systems.

This software is protected by both United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions. Each installed copy of the program is registered with The Office of Information Technology as a function of your agreeing with these terms. Archival copies of this software may be made for the sole purpose of backing up your software.
