
Apple MacOS License Agreement

Description: This software is provided to you under an agreement between the Office of Information Technology (OIT) and Apple Computer, Inc. to make MacOS available at a reduced price.

Under the terms of this agreement, current faculty and staff may purchase the right to use this software while they are associated with The Ohio State University. When you are no longer a current faculty or staff member, you must return this software to your department or to OIT. This license is nontransferable.

This software is for use on The Ohio State University's main and regional campuses only. For each right-to-use copy purchased, the software may be installed on a single Apple computer. Archival copies may be made for the sole purpose of backing up the software.

You agree to the use terms below, and if authorized to install multiple copies, you must advise anyone who is using or receiving any of those copies that they are prohibited from distributing, transferring, modifying, decompiling, reverse engineering, creating a derivative work or making copies of the software, and you must supply them with this agreement. This software may not be used outside the USA. You must assure that their signed End User Agreement is returned to OIT in 512 Baker Systems.

This software is protected by both United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions. Each copy of the program for which you sign is registered with OIT.

I verify that I have read, understand, and agree to honor this agreement and the license terms originally provided with the software.

NOTE – pertaining to the other side of this agreement: For a single copy, Number of purchased copies means the single media set; for multiple copies, Number of purchased copies means the number of copies you are authorized to make/install.

By signing and completing this agreement, I agree to honor the user license agreement on the reverse side.
