
Maple Software License Agreement

This Software is provided to you under an agreement between The Office of Information Technology of The Ohio State University and Maplesoft, Inc.

Under the terms of this agreement, Maple is available to current faculty, staff and graduate students who are employed as a teaching or research assistant/associate. The software may be installed on OSU-owned or leased computers on the main and regional campuses and at home. The software may also be used under the same conditions by the above students on campus only. When you are no longer a current employee or student of OSU, you must return this software to your department or The Office of Information Technology.

The software may be used only for the OSU educational purposes of research, teaching and administration. For each right-to-use copy distributed to you, the software may be installed on a single computer.

The undersigned is authorized to install the number of copies of Maple indicated on the back of this form for use on the following platform. For a network installation, copies means the total number of network seats that will use the server.

Single user:

Windows Macintosh Linux 32-bit Linux 64-bit

Network user:

Unix Windows Macintosh Linux32-bit Linux 64-bit

You agree to the use terms below, and if authorized to install multiple copies, you must advise anyone who is using or receiving any of those copies that they are prohibited from distributing, transferring, modifying, decompiling, reverse engineering, creating a derivative work except for any content developed in Maple Worksheets, or making copies of the software, and you must supply them with this agreement. You must assure that their signed End User Agreement is returned to OIT in 512 Baker Systems.

This software is protected by both United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions. Each installed copy of the program is registered with The Office of Information Technology as a function of your signing this form. Archival copies of this software may be made for the sole purpose of backing up your software.

By signing and completing this agreement, I agree to honor the user license agreement on the reverse side.
