
Nvivo License Agreement

This software is provided to you under an agreement between The Ohio State University and Qualitative Solutions and Research. Under the terms of the license agreement, current faculty and staff may use this software while they are associated with the university. You may also install this software in computer labs for student use. You may not a) transfer, rent, lease, or lend the software, b) decompile, disassemble, merge, modify or adapt the software in any way, or c) use it for commercial gain or profit. When you are no longer a current faculty or staff member, you must leave this software with your department or The Office of Information Technology (OIT) and remove it from your home computer.

The software is for use on The Ohio State University main and regional campuses only. Home use is allowed for OSU business only. You are authorized to install this software on one computer unless you are obtaining extra copies as a department computer support representative. This license allows use on an annual basis. There is no pro-rated license fee. It renews every year and the annual license fee must be paid to continue usage.

You agree to the use terms below, and if authorized to install multiple copies, you must advise anyone who is using or receiving any of those copies that they are prohibited from distributing, transferring, modifying, decompiling, reverse engineering, creating a derivative work or making copies of the software, and you must supply them with this agreement. This software may not be use outside the USA. You must assure that their signed End User Agreement is returned to OIT in 512 Baker Systems.

Both United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions protect this software. Each installed copy of the program is registered with The Office of Information Technology as a function of your agreeing with these terms. Archival copies of this software may be made for the sole purpose of backing up your software.
